West End Has Faith

is a group of professional singers working in musical theatre, nurturing a Christian community within the West End and around the UK. For Tearfund's 50th year they have partnered together for a Faith at the Musicals Tour. The Wales concert is at Bethel Baptist Pontyclun. An inspiring and fun filled evening, the perfect event for inviting friends and family. Tickets, £6 can be purchased from www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/faith-at-the-musicals

Miss Tilley's Pop Up Cafe

Miss Tilley's pop up coffee shop has started with us and will be here every Thursday morning during term time, selling their delicious cakes which include vegan and gluten free. The team includes a core of committed volunteers who support, train and mentor a growing number of young disabled people.

Miss Tilley's was created as a vehicle to create both work experience opportunities and, whenever possible, paid employment. However, it was fundamental to their vision that these opportunities would engage positively with the community and maximise opportunities for inclusion. Please come along and support these incredible people and share with your friends and neighbours.

The Harbour

Are you caught in a sea of emotion? Are you looking for some peace in the storm? Do you want to find an anchor? This group has a Christian ethos but you do not need to have faith to attend. Starting with food in the Ark at 7pm, we plan to be finished by 9pm. We would love to see you. We meet this Wednesday then the next date is the 27th. We normally meet on the second and fourth Wednesdays.

40 Days

From the Sunday before Lent (3 March) until Passion Sunday (7 April) we will be following Forty Days of Purpose, learning more about discipleship and mission, through Sunday teaching and small groups. More information will be given over the next few weeks but if you'd like to order a copy of the book 'What on earth am I here for?' please sign the form at the Welcome Desk.

Eco-Awards

A small group of people are meeting at 7pm on Tuesday 26 February to see how we are able to attain a Bronze Eco-Award. If this is something that interests you, please contact Naomi.
